

I have thoroughly enjoyed NOT being contacted at all hours of the day and night by telephone solicitors since being on Indiana's "No-Call" list. Any movement to lessen the effectiveness of this legislation should be stopped immediately. My time at home is MY time and no one has the right to infringe upon it.